

Privacy Policy – WARRANT

Who we are

Our website address is: <https://warrant-project.eu>.

1. Introduction

- 1.1. We are committed to safeguarding the privacy of WARRANT website visitors and service users, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR).
- 1.2. This policy applies where we are acting as a data controller with respect to the personal data of WARRANT website visitors and service users; in other words, where we determine the purposes and means of the processing of that personal data.
- 1.3. We use cookies on our website. Insofar as those cookies are not strictly necessary for the provision of WARRANT, we will ask you to consent to our use of cookies when you first visit our website.
- 1.4. In this policy, “we”, “us” and “our” refer to KONNECTA Systems IKE.

2. How we use your personal data

- 2.1. In this Section 2 we have set out:
  - a. the general categories of personal data that we may process;
  - b. in the case of personal data that we did not obtain directly from you, the source and specific categories of that data;
  - c. the purposes for which we may process personal data;
  - d. the legal bases of the processing.
- 2.2. We may process your personal account data (“account data”). The account data may include your name and email address. The source of the account data is you or your employer. The account data may be processed for the purposes of operating our website, providing our services, ensuring the security of our website and services, maintaining back-ups of our databases and communicating with you. The legal basis for this processing is our legitimate interests, namely the proper administration of our website and business.
- 2.3. We may process your information included in your personal profile on our website (“profile data”). The profile data may include your name, address, telephone number, email address, profile pictures, gender, date of birth, educational details and employment details. The legal basis for this processing is our legitimate interests, namely the proper administration of our website and business.
- 2.4. We may process your personal data that are provided in the course of the use of our services (“service data”).
- 2.5. We may process information that you post for publication on our website or through our services (“publication data”). The publication data may be processed for the purposes of enabling such publication and administering our website and services. The legal basis for this processing is our legitimate interests, namely the proper administration of our website and business.

- 2.6. We may process information contained in any enquiry you submit to us regarding goods and/or services (“enquiry data”). The legal basis for this processing is consent.
- 2.7. We may process information that you provide to us for the purpose of subscribing to our email notifications and/or newsletters (“notification data”). The notification data may be processed for the purposes of sending you the relevant notifications and/or newsletters. The legal basis for this processing is consent.
- 2.8. We may process information contained in or relating to any communication that you send to us (“correspondence data”). The correspondence data may include the communication content and metadata associated with the communication. The correspondence data may be processed for the purposes of communicating with you and record-keeping. The legal basis for this processing is our legitimate interests, namely the proper administration of our website and business and communications with users.
- 2.9. We may process any of your personal data identified in this policy where necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, whether in court proceedings or in an administrative or out-of-court procedure. The legal basis for this processing is our legitimate interests, namely the protection and assertion of our legal rights, your legal rights and the legal rights of others.
- 2.10. We may process any of your personal data identified in this policy where necessary for the purposes of obtaining or maintaining insurance coverage, managing risks, or obtaining professional advice. The legal basis for this processing is our legitimate interests, namely the proper protection of our association against risks.
- 2.11. In addition to the specific purposes for which we may process your personal data set out in this Section 2, we may also process any of your personal data where such processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject, or in order to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another natural person.
- 2.12. Please do not supply any other person’s personal data to us, unless we prompt you to do so.

3. Providing your personal data to others

- 3.1. We may disclose your personal data to any member of our group of companies (this means our subsidiaries, our ultimate holding company and all its subsidiaries) insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes, and on the legal bases, set out in this policy.
- 3.2. We may disclose your personal data to our insurers and/or professional advisers insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes of obtaining or maintaining insurance coverage, managing risks, obtaining professional advice, or the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, whether in court proceedings or in an administrative or out-of-court procedure.

3.3. In addition to the specific disclosures of personal data set out in this Section 3, we may disclose your personal data where such disclosure is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject, or in order to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another natural person. We may also disclose your personal data where such disclosure is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, whether in court proceedings or in an administrative or out-of-court procedure.

4. International transfers of your personal data

4.1. In this Section 4, we provide information about the circumstances in which your personal data may be transferred to countries outside the European Economic Area (EEA).

4.2. KONNECTA SYSTEMS IKE is headquartered at Kifisia, Attica, Greece. The European Commission has made an “adequacy decision” with respect to the data protection laws of the country. Data will be protected by appropriate safeguards, namely the use of standard data protection clauses adopted or approved by the European Commission.

4.3. Our website hosting facilities are located within the EEA.

4.4. You acknowledge that personal data that you submit for publication through our website or services may be available, via the internet, around the world. We cannot prevent the use (or misuse) of such personal data by others.

5. Retaining and deleting personal data

5.1. This Section 5 sets out our data retention policies and procedure, which are designed to help ensure that we comply with our legal obligations in relation to the retention and deletion of personal data.

5.2. Personal data that we process for any purpose or purposes shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that purpose or those purposes.

5.3. We will retain your personal data as follows:

a. Account data, Profile data, Service data will be retained for a minimum period of 1 year following registration date, and for a maximum period of 10 years following unsubscription date.

5.4. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Section 5, we may retain your personal data where such retention is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject, or in order to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another natural person.

6. Amendments

6.1. We may update this policy from time to time by publishing a new version on our website.

6.2. You should check this page occasionally to ensure you are happy with any changes to this policy.

6.3. We may notify you of significant changes to this policy by email.

7. Your rights

- 7.1. In this Section 7, we have summarised the rights that you have under data protection law.
- 7.2. Your principal rights under data protection law are:
- a. the right to access;
  - b. the right to rectification;
  - c. the right to erasure;
  - d. the right to restrict processing;
  - e. the right to object to processing;
  - f. the right to data portability;
  - g. the right to complain to a supervisory authority; and
  - h. the right to withdraw consent.
- 7.3. You have the right to confirmation as to whether or not we process your personal data and, where we do, access to the personal data, together with certain additional information. That additional information includes details of the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned and the recipients of the personal data. Providing the rights and freedoms of others are not affected, we will supply to you a copy of your personal data. The first copy will be provided free of charge, but additional copies may be subject to a reasonable fee. You can request access to your personal data by contacting us at info@warrant-project.eu.
- 7.4. You have the right to have any inaccurate personal data about you rectified and, taking into account the purposes of the processing, to have any incomplete personal data about you completed.
- 7.5. In some circumstances you have the right to the erasure of your personal data without undue delay. Those circumstances include: the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed; you withdraw consent to consent-based processing; you object to the processing under certain rules of applicable data protection law; the processing is for direct marketing purposes; and the personal data have been unlawfully processed. However, there are exclusions of the right to erasure. The general exclusions include where processing is necessary: for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information; for compliance with a legal obligation; or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
- 7.6. In some circumstances you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Those circumstances are: you contest the accuracy of the personal data; processing is unlawful but you oppose erasure; we no longer need the personal data for the purposes of our processing, but you require personal data for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; and you have objected to processing, pending the verification of that objection. Where processing has been restricted on this basis, we may continue to store your personal data. However, we will only otherwise process it: with your consent; for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person; or for reasons of important public interest.

- 7.7. You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data on grounds relating to your particular situation, but only to the extent that the legal basis for the processing is that the processing is necessary for: the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of any official authority vested in us; or the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by us or by a third party. If you make such an objection, we will cease to process the personal information unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing is for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
- 7.8. You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes (including profiling for direct marketing purposes). If you make such an objection, we will cease to process your personal data for this purpose.
- 7.9. You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes on grounds relating to your particular situation, unless the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out for reasons of public interest.
- 7.10. To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal data is:
- a. consent; or
  - b. that the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are party or in order to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract, and such processing is carried out by automated means, you have the right to receive your personal data from us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. However, this right does not apply where it would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

- 7.11. If you consider that our processing of your personal information infringes data protection laws, you have a legal right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority responsible for data protection. You may do so in the EU member state of your habitual residence, your place of work or the place of the alleged infringement.
- 7.12. To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal information is consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. Withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of processing before the withdrawal.
- 7.13. You may exercise any of your rights in relation to your personal data by written notice to us, in addition to the other methods specified in this Section 7.

8. About cookies

- 8.1. A cookie is a file containing an identifier (a string of letters and numbers) that is sent by a web server to a web browser and is stored by the browser. The identifier is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server.
- 8.2. Cookies may be either “persistent” cookies or “session” cookies: a persistent cookie will be stored by a web browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date, unless deleted by the user before the expiry date; a session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session, when the web browser is closed.
- 8.3. Cookies do not typically contain any information that personally identifies a user, but personal information that we store about you may be linked to the information stored in and obtained from cookies.

9. Cookies that we use

9.1. We use cookies for the following purposes:

a. Strictly necessary cookies – these cookies are essential for the operation of our website and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually only set in response to actions made by you, such as logging in or setting privacy preferences.

b. Functional cookies – these cookies allow the website to remember choices you make and provide enhanced, more personal features.

9.2. The website is built using WordPress. WordPress uses cookies for authentication and logged-in user sessions, including but not limited to the following:

- wordpress_*
- wordpress_logged_in_*

9.3. Cookie consent cookies are used to store your preferences regarding the use of cookies. These cookies are set by the CookieYes consent management platform.

9.4. We do not use analytics cookies or marketing/advertising cookies on this website.

9.5. A full and up-to-date list of cookies used on this website, including their purpose and duration, is available via the cookie consent banner and the cookie settings panel.

9.6. The use of non-essential cookies is based on your consent, in accordance with Article 6(1)(a) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

10. Managing cookies

10.1. Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies and to delete cookies. The methods for doing so vary from browser to browser, and from version to version. You can obtain up-to-date information about blocking and deleting cookies via these links:
